

VoIP phone User Manual

The EE52 VoIP phone is a phone that can communicate with other EE52 VoIP phones. The user controls the phone by using a 128x32 display and a 4x4 keypad. There is a headphone and microphone jack that a headset can be plugged into, and there is a button for putting the phone “on-the-hook” to hangup the call.

Will Werst